Section 1 – GENERAL

Parliamentary law and the rules of procedure derived from such law are essential to all deliberative organizations so that they may consider all matters before them in an effective and efficient manner and produce results that are legal and binding. Moreover, such procedural safeguards ensure due process during deliberations among members of the organization while at the same time protecting the rights of both the group and each member. Accordingly, these rules of procedure establish guidelines to be followed by all persons attending City Council meetings, including members of the City Council, administrative staff, news media, citizens and visitors.

Section 2 – AUTHORITY

The City Charter of Manor, Texas [Adopted: August 15, 2007; Amended: May 9, 2015] provides in Article III (City Council Judge of its Members), Section 3.04. (Rule of Procedure) that “The Council shall by ordinance determine its own rules and order of business.” Thus, these rules of procedure are established. In the event of any conflict between the City Charter and these rules of procedure, the City Charter shall prevail.

The parliamentary reference for the City Council is the most recent edition of Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised (RONR). When any issue concerning procedure arises that is not covered by the Rules of Procedure, the City Charter or State law, the Council will refer to RONR, which shall generally determine such procedural issue. www.robertsrules.com.

Section 3 – MEETINGS

The City Council shall follow both the letter and the spirit of the Texas Open Meetings Act.
